New York

Old passport issued June 12, 1873 No. 02703

Charles H. T. Collis being duly sworn deposes and says, that although born abroad, he is ^{not} a naturalized citizen of the United States, and therefore unable to furnish the State Department with a certified copy of the Court Record of his certificate of naturalization. He came to the United States before he was sixteen years of age, in the steamship "Glasgow," which sailed from Liverpool on the 1st day of March, 1854.

His father was a naturalized citizen of the United States when he (the deponent) became of age, and therefore it was unnecessary that he should become naturalized. He resided in the city of Philadelphia from the time of his arrival in the United States until about twelve years ago, when he removed to the city of New York, and has resided there ever since.
